

Tinder's Swipe Night® Experience Returns to Asia Pacific with a Mystery to Solve and More Ways to Match

Available globally on November 7th at 6pm local time, only on Tinder

Singapore, 2 November 2021 - On November 7th at 6pm (local time), the Emmy-nominated Swipe Night experience returns with a new storyline that invites Tinder members to join a group of friends on a birthday weekend getaway where something goes terribly wrong. As a first-person story, Swipe Night: Killer Weekend puts Tinder members in the heart of the episode, where even they become a suspect. Tinder members in 25 global markets will be able to find Swipe Night in the newly launched Explore, where it will run for three consecutive weeks.

Like the inaugural Swipe Night, participants will use Tinder's iconic Swipe feature to choose how the story unfolds. Each episode requires members to make 10+ choices, and each of these decisions will take them down a different path within the experience, exposing them to unique clues or spaces to investigate as they get one step closer to cracking the case.

At the end of each week, participants will be asked to choose their suspect and then can be paired in Fast Chat with someone who chose a different suspect. There, members will be able to talk about the scenes they saw, analyze clues they didn't get to see and solve the mystery together. Building on the interactivity of the first installment, during the Swipe Night experience members will be able to search rooms within the house and investigate objects that reveal additional clues.

"Swipe Night was our first big experiment to see if members wanted to do something more than Swipe, and the answer was resoundingly 'yes'," said Kyle Miller VP, of Product. "The evolution of Swipe Night, and experiences more broadly on Tinder, allow members to have a fun, low pressure way to break the ice. We decided on the mystery genre, because it's a conversation catalyst and a unique opportunity for members to get to know their match by working together to solve the crime."

The first Swipe Night was experienced by 20 million members who saw a 26% increase in matches*. Interest in true crime is at an all-time high on Tinder - bios mentioning the genre have increased by 20% since the beginning of the year and more than 30k Tinder members are looking for their "partner in crime" in bios. Swipe Night: Killer Weekend starts November 7th at 6pm in member's local markets. The "Fast Chat" experience will be available on Sundays from 6pm through midnight, but members can continue to replay the experience and make different choices throughout November and beyond. Swipe Night: Killer Weekend is directed by Sasie Sealy and led by a cast of up-and-coming Gen Z talent.
