INTRODUCI

Put yourself first.

You've got people to meet and places to be. In fact, Tinder was designed with this in mind, providing you a simple, fun introduction to new people nearby so you can get out and meet them in the real world. Still, sometimes there just aren't enough hours in the day and what you need is a boost in the right direction. Tinder Boost gives you exactly that: a way to be one of the top profiles in your area for 30 minutes. Increase your chances for a match—you can get up to 10x more profile views while boosting.

Be seen by more people and get more matches. Get your boost on:

Boost can only be activated while swiping in Tinder mode. If you have Tinder Plus, you get one free Boost every month. If you want more, or if you don't have Tinder Plus, you can buy a Boost any time you like.

And remember, please use caution while boosting and don't let all the attention go to your head.
